KidzArt Offers Free Franchises in National Giveaway

International Art Education Franchise Company Announces that this Fall it will be Giving Away Five Free Franchises to Qualified Applicants

New Braunfels, TX, August 4, 2010 -- KidzArt, an international children's art education franchise company, announced that in November 2010, five lucky people will win a complete KidzArt/Art Innovators franchise for free. Business-savvy individuals who want to own a business with complete training and support have a chance to win and become a part of this world-wide creative franchise .

There are three ways to enter and three ways to win: Submit an online application at www.franchise-giveaway.com. Stop by the KidzArt/Art Innovators booth #720 at the West Coast Franchise Expo located at the West Los Angeles Conference Center from November 5th to November 7th or complete an application at <https://secure.events-registration.com/wcfe2010/?source=GPART>. Submit a 90 second video commercial highlighting the KidzArt/Art Innovators program to YouTube.com along with a written application at www.franchise-giveaway.com.

"Being your own boss and playing an important role in your local community is a dream for many people. The KidzArt organization offers you professional guidance and customized business tools to help you succeed!" says Sue Bartman, CEO of KidzArt. "We look forward to reviewing hundreds of applications and video submissions for this exciting free giveaway"

For qualification details, please visit <http://www.franchise-giveaway.com/qualifications.php>. Of the five winners, KidzArt will announce two southern California winners on Saturday November 6, 2010 at 5 pm at Dick Blick in West Los Angeles and three at the West Coast Franchise Expo on Sunday, November 7th at 1 pm (two online applicants and one video applicant). Winners need not be present to win.

About KidzArt

Founded in 1998, KidzArt is an international art enrichment franchise company that helps students of all ages explore their inner artistic potential. Through afterschool classes, camps, workshops and birthday parties, KidzArt offers a diverse, multi-cultural, multi-media drawing and fine arts curriculum designed to inspire students throughout the world. KidzArt's "no mistakes" philosophy encourages children to try new things, explore their creativity and overcome their inhibitions or obstacles in order to grow and learn. Franchising since July 2002, KidzArt has franchised units throughout the US, China, the Middle East, Singapore, Indonesia, India and South Korea.
